

For some background information, I was in a drama before in 2020. This entire doc is written from my side of the story, my point of view, and I am going to state how I felt throughout time.

Before we start, I'd like to put a trigger warning for the content in this document. Trigger warning for: birdie drama, obsession, self harm, suicide mentions, cp mentions, pedophile mentions, cults, Nazi mention, serial killers, doxxing, racism, transphobia, slur mentions, and lots more! If you think this may make you uncomfortable, try not to go through in reading this.

Backstory:

Anyway for some background, in 2020 I was in a huge amount of drama. It all started mostly in May 2020. At the time I was a huge Birdie whiteknight and I did and said some things I heavily regret. I wasn't really obsessed with Jack, I just considered myself a dedicated fan. I'd hate anyone he said hurt him to the extreme. Sometime in April 2020, I had gone to Jack's DeviantArt profile and found I was blocked, I had no clue why. I didn't recall doing anything wrong. Later on I became more devoted to Jack. I started attacking Charlie, formally known by the usernames fontik, RibChills, himeguts, and UNICORNTEARZ13. I would deadname him and claim he was taking being trans because Jack said the same. In mid May 2020, Vinnie, who was Charlie's partner at the time, made a video about 2020 Birdie drama where they called out Jack for harassing Charlie and them. I had commented on the video deadnaming Vinnie out of anger and because I wanted Jack to like me. This comment was made on my school account which is under my legal first and last name, which led to me being doxxed by a pro-harassment group of birdie haters called the guts gang. My private info was put on a pedestal and everyone would threaten me with it and say they were going to call/text my mother and get me grounded. The guts gang started spamming me on either the 19th or the 20th of May 2020. They also sexualized me heavily despite being 13 at the time. They also tried to force the idea of me having a scat fetish despite knowing that made me uncomfortable. They would send me gifs of animals shitting, and talk about me eating shit, and even drew me as a toilet and said I liked eating Jack's poop. They knew scat grosses me out heavily and what they were saying made me really uncomfortable but they kept going. On May 24th, 2020, Jack and some of his friends were shit talking about me and it made me so upset. I treated Jack like a king. I worshipped the very ground he walked on. I was nothing but supportive and I constantly made fanart. I started to hate Jack which didn't last long because on what I think was June 22nd, 2020 I developed an obsessive crush on him, I made an obsession account. Jack's friends found out and harassed me non-stop. Julian, Jack's partner at the time, harassed me heavily along with some other dude Al, who was in the friend group. This one person added me to a group chat on Discord with these people. Originally it was Dragy, Al, and Julian who were being rude to me, eventually Dragy stepped off and started being nicer, but Julian and Al didn't. They made fun of my art so much that it destroyed my ability to like anything I draw. Now everytime I draw I have to constantly redraw shit until it looks perfect to me or else my art would get mocked or I'd just feel like it would be. I hate everything I draw and nothing looks perfect. They would send links to badly drawn art from DeviantArt and say it looked like my art. They even compared my art to this <https://www.deviantart.com/bluedog444/art/MordeTwi-Airplanes-319272821>.

At one point, Julian told me I looked deformed and inbred, which destroyed my ability to like my face, now I have severe self-image problems. Anyway, fast forward a bit, in either late August or early September 2020, I stopped supporting Jack. Some people couldn't seem to accept that I was changing and I no longer supported Birdie (keep in mind, I was harassed by other people for supporting Jack, despite me only being a little kid. I developed mental trauma from this and even seeing a certain person's name, username, or art would trigger me).

Friend drama shit:

In mid November 2020, I had made up with a group of people who I previously hated (the hatred was mutual). I had a friend at one point who now goes by the name Onslaught (last time I checked). We met in late 2018 and became friends and we talked all the time in 2019 along with some people I met through them and someone named Axel (he and Onslaught are super relevant later on). Some drama happened in early July 2020 which caused me and Onslaught to stop being friends, because some of the people who were harassing me turned them against me. I later explained shit to them and they said we could be friends if we keep it a secret to avoid them being harassed. They ended up going a bit too far and it hurt my feelings. I told them to please stop pretending to hate me just to save their reputation because reputation shouldn't matter when it comes to your best friend. However they went behind my back and led my harassers into my server and drama happened on July 17th, 2020 because of it. More shit happened and at one point, Onslaught's drama friends raided my server and Ari, a friend I had at the time, helped me fix the server. More shit went down, and Axel, who was on my side, left my side and went to Onslaught's side at one point in mid October and said I was disgusting and he wanted to find a replacement for me that isn't as disgusting as I am. I felt hurt and started yelling at him in posts saying he was the disgusting one.

The end of drama (for now):

In mid November 2020, Axel apologized to me and so did Onslaught. By late November, I was cool with them again and the drama died out. I even got invited back in Onslaught's group chat on Discord and I later joined their server and let them and Axel into mine. Nobody cared about me anymore because I was "normal" according to w33dw4cker. It wasn't until May 2021 that shit heated back up.

The return of "Peanut Drama" in 2021:

Breakup Drama:

The first notable drama that happened this month was some dumb break up drama. First of all on June 2nd, 2020, me and someone also named Jack, but to avoid confusion, I will call him by his other name, Felix, started dating. We later broke up in July due to my obsession with Jack/Birdie. We got back together a 2nd time on September 6th, 2020, and this lasted for 8 months until May 15th, 2021. Me and Axel had started dating on December 30th, 2020, this lasted until September 16th, 2021. We all thought Felix knew, but apparently he didn't. He got upset when he found out and broke up with me and shit. I changed my username on Pixilart from "ITCHII" to "mxnipulator" because I felt like nothing but a player, a manipulator, a heartbreaker. I was planning on changing it back, but a few days later someone stole my ITCHII username and made an account just to "expose" me, pretending to be my ex friend/mutual/love interest from 2018-201, Rudy. I thought this was total bullshit and I complained about it. This would become a huge problem later on.

Swedishdresser Drama:

In January 2021, I started to become a heavy whiteknight of Julian, who had broken up with Jack in October 2020, remained his friend, then stopped being his friend in December, then totally went against him and became obsessed with exposing him. I jumped to Julian's side and started to kiss his ass. I had found out that Julian and someone called Toshi made accounts to pretend to be fans of Jack and they eventually became his friend, they did this to spy on Jack. I got inspired and made an account called swedishdresser where I pretended to be a 15 year old teenager who was a huge fan of Jack just to bait him. Toshi caught on in April though I denied it and he gave up. Somehow in late May 2021 it got mass found out and tons of people jumped to attack me for it. Infact, I lost a friend then and there. I had this friend named Seven, we became friends due to us both being former birdie fans who now hated him, we also both really like Pico from Newgrounds. In late May 2021 when everyone found swedishdresser, Seven broke things off with me right then and there and said I had a true crime fetish and I was a birdie fan, I explained that wasn't true and the shit I said about killers was a joke (as I made a lot of jokes about the Jonestown massacre (cult shit), Hitler and the Nazis, and other shit) as I thought it was (A few days later I realised I did have a crush on Jeffrey Dahmer), and the account existed to bait Jack and I didn't really like him. People still attacked me. I ended up interacting with one of Seven's ex friends, I then realised from this person how horrible of a person Seven really is.

Jeffrey Dahmer drama:

In early June 2021, I realised I had a crush on Jeffrey Dahmer, I was very open about this. Vincent, someone who I followed on Twitter and DeviantArt back in May, made a vague post on Tumblr about me. I found it while searching Jeffrey Dahmer on Tumblr. I thought this was really funny that someone was so butthurt about me liking Jeffrey, that they made a whole ass Tumblr post about me. I made fun of the situation because I thought it was absolutely ridiculous. I also sent him a copypasta about doing his mom as a joke, he took this as harassment and I got called out for it. The whole drama didn't bubble over until a few days later.

Hacking drama:

On June 13th, 2021, I was forced out of my home. I went to my great grandma Peg's house and stayed overnight. I made jokes about serial killers and stuff like that and drew joke art of Hitler and Ted Bundy in bed together and sent it to a friend I had at the time called Luci (he will become SUPER relevant in the future). Luci didn't really have anything to respond with. I still have our last convo:

Wait wrong person oopsie

✖ Skarekrow ✖ 06/13/2021

ah

AHAHAHA WOT

The next day on June 14th, 2021 I migrated to my great grandpa's house, I just call him Pap. The next day I was supposed to come home, but I didn't get to. The next night I made a video which I turned into a premier since I couldn't live stream via mobile. I was completely exhausted from not sleeping well the last few nights and I accidentally let my password show in the video. The next day when I arrived back home I took a bath and when I came out of the tub my account CANNIBALCUTIE666 got hacked into and someone was saying the N word on my account and being terrible. I tried to say I was hacked but nobody would really listen and I was blamed for being racist and transphobic even though I wasn't. At one point the hacker drew pornographic art of me and posted it on that account and everyone believed it was me and my hacker got away with drawing pornographic art of me, a 14 year old. On June 17th, Luci left me as he believed I faked my hacking despite my hacker doing a TERRIBLE job pretending to be me. He also began attacking me and when I broke down and talked about thoughts of self-harm and suicidal thoughts, he claimed I was faking it to guilt-trip when I was genuinely breaking down and I have had suicidal thoughts since I was 11 and I have been self-harming since I was 11, my self-harm problem got so bad when I was 12 that I continuously ripped apart skin on my leg with tweezers and dug into it over the course of 3 months. Blood dripped down to the floor many times and I have a big scar on my leg from it. Yet all my feelings were fake just because I was venting online instead of talking to a therapist. I tried to say the truth, therapy makes me uncomfortable and I only feel comfortable telling my problems to people online, but he claimed it was a fake Birdie coverup and I was lying. Sometime later, the person who stole my old username "ITCHII" on Pixilart and posed as Rudy, started posing as Luci, Luci blamed this on me because the username was ITCHII, I tried to explain the account existed for a bit now and they just stole my old username but he claimed I was lying because "nobody would want to fuck with me in May 2021" even though that isn't even true.

Suicide "Drama":

On July 11th, 2021, Axel decided to pretend to hate me now to spy on Luci. I started to panic that he was going to be manipulated into actually hating me and I couldn't tell if he was being serious or not. On July 14th, I got up early and animated on my phone until my internet came back (My parents have the internet set to freeze from 10:10 PM-8:30 AM) then I got online, watched some funny videos and laughed. It wasn't until around 10 AM that I decided to go onto Pixilart and check Axel's page. I found that he had posted a picture and the description was in base64 code, I decided to decode it and my jaw dropped. He said he was going to kill himself and he'd be dead by the time I woke up, he wrote this the night before on July 13th. I thought it was true and he was dead and I cried all morning and into the afternoon. He came back during the afternoon and said he "pussied out" at the last minute and just cut himself a lot. Right when he came back he had found someone had impersonated him and deactivated when he came back, Onslaught got mad and said they wanted to slit their throat for what they did to Axel. Axel and I were shocked because a death threat is the LAST thing we'd expect from Onslaught. Onslaught always seemed against that kind of shit. I got really upset and emotional because Axel said it was because he was pretending to like Luci and hate me that he got all fucked up like that because he felt like he was betraying me and he felt terrible. I labeled Luci as the one to blame and told him he should've been the one to almost kill himself instead. This situation fucked my brain up so much and traumatized me (same with Onslaught) but Luci disregarded it and acted like me and Onslaught were faking our feelings. Around that time I started using death threats and telling people to kill themselves, it became a very bad habit of mine. On July 16th, Axel stopped showing up online, he was gone for days and I was worried sick. Turned out he attempted suicide by stabbing himself in the stomach and his life was saved due to his mother walking in on him at the right moment. I got even more fucked up and started raging on everyone who hated on me even more, not only were they spreading lies about me and my friends, but they were also harassing us, and were going to cause suicides if this went too far as we had just almost lost someone TWICE in the same fucking week. Not to mention when I vented about it, people mocked my vent along with mocking Axel's suicide attempt. Not to mention, in very late July, we met someone called Parsley who was our friend for a short amount of time, before leaving us and lying about us saying we ignored them, treated them like shit, and only cared about them when it came to drama shit (they hated Luci too and made a fake Luci account. They even used the N word/slur on it despite being white and stated they'd just pin the blame on someone else. That someone turned out to be me later on. Parsley also sent an anonymous message to Axel using his suicide attempt as a threat to him by telling him to stab himself in the stomach until he bleeds out to death).

Sam

Sam was a friend and member of our friend group which we called "Spongy". Onslaught was the creator/founder, and me and Axel were leaders in Spongy. Sam started dating Onslaught and Onslaught would stay with Sam even when me and Axel became very suspicious of him due to him talking with Luci and some other "Anti Peanut" people and screenshotting shit I said which resulted in more harassment and mocking towards me. Sam was kicked from the group and me and Axel started to talk shit about him. At one point Sam and Felix made a shared email together and the account was linked to a Pixilart account. Felix pretended to be a whole different person and requested to follow me. I had a strong feeling it was Felix because it was just obvious. I called him out and he made a response saying he hoped I got raped. He claimed it wasn't him and I hacked him when I didn't. He and Sam also claimed I was stalking their Padlet when I had, and still have, ZERO access to it. The shared email sent me a death threat via email as Sam. Sam revealed the password to the account and I hacked into it. A few days later, I realised that email was linked to the Pixilart account and it wasn't until THEN that I tried to get into it. Sam also lied to Axel and broke us up by convincing him I was manipulating him when I wasn't, which I'll get more into later on.

The Downfall of Spongy:

On September 12th, 2021, I noticed Onslaught was talking to Sam asking him if they should leave me. They knew damn well he would just lie and manipulate them into believing I'm bad so before anything could happen I showed this to Axel and we had a plan to steal Spongy from Onslaught. This plan failed and we made our new group, Onslaught became full on Anti-Peanut after this and Spongy turned into "Charlie Fan Club" and was now full of Anti-Peanut people.

Jeffrey Dahmer University:

On September 12th, 2021, Jeffrey Dahmer University was founded by me and Axel. It was normal for the next few days, and bonus: Charles and Parsley came back and we were good again, as Parsley claimed "i used to be antipeanut but i'm normal now". On September 16th, 2021, shit went down though.

Drama, Lies, and Breakups:

On September 16th, 2021, I woke up to a message from Axel saying he was considering becoming an Anti Peanut person, reading this, my heart broke a tad. He claimed he was never going to turn against me and even if I was manipulating him, he wouldn't care because he loves me. Later he fully turned against me because Sam managed to get him to believe I was manipulating him when I wasn't. I feel into a heavy obsession over Axel and even self-harmed over it.

The end of drama (for now)

On September 19th, 2021, we all sorted things out and I apologized for some of the more fucked up shit I did and we ended the drama. Though some people could not let go.

Rebound:

DeviantArt doxxer:

During the drama, someone created a DeviantArt account with their username as my full doxxed name and the profile picture as my face, which I am not comfortable with being out there anymore. They came back the moment I made a new DeviantArt account and said "Hi [deadname]" on my profile. I told them to leave me the fuck alone, they just ignored me.

Prince and Betzi:

In October, someone called Prince claimed that some account called betzithelitgurl1 was me. This person spouts slur after slur and is a deadnamer and doxxer. They said people who hate Jack suck and deserve to kill themselves and get raped. They also called them transphobic slurs. Just as I thought that they couldn't get any worse, they started to doxx and deadname people and even turned out racist.

More deadnaming but this time they are deadnaming another one of Jack's exes, Charlie. Also trying to say "OMG CHARLIE AND DRAGY ARE BAD BECAUSE THEY'RE IN DICE THE SPOOKY CULT" as if anyone cares. Plus DICE.ORG isn't even a cult. Calling it a cult is rather disrespectful to actual victims of ACTUAL cults.

Here Julian continues to harass me while claiming me or one of my friends is responsible for the Betzi account lol i do not even know this person. if it is one of my friends (which i doubt) then they are keeping it a secret from me, which i would not appreciate. me and my friends have actually changed a lot so i have very big doubts it could be them. personally, i think this is my creepy ass hacker/stalker who, despite being 19 years old, was so obsessed with me and some other people i used to be friends with to the point they impersonated me (very poorly, may i add) and then later went on to hacking my accounts once my password got leaked. they admitted to doing this to dampen my reputation, and while they did a VERY AWFUL job and pretending to be me, they managed to succeed and successfully ruin my reputation to the point idiots like you believed i faked being hacked despite it being SO OBVIOUS i wasn't faking. and by doing so, you are also letting the hacker get away with drawing cp of me, because they did that and posted it on one of MY accounts and it didn't get taken down until me and my friends mass reported it. betzi acts SUSPICIOUSLY like my hacker in so many ways it is unbelievably horrifying. not that you'd believe me or anything because you're a total brainless idiot lmaoo

you know what, racco? i hope someone impersonates you and paints you as a bigoted transphobic doxer and when you try your best to get through to everyone that it isn't you, everyone doesn't believe you and you lose friends over it and your impersonator hacks you and draws pornographic art of your persona and posts it on your deviantart account and everyone still believes you're faking it and they let your hacker get away with drawing cp of you and your mental state drops even more as you're being harassed and called out over shit you didn't even do and it gets so bad and so horrible that you start self-harming and you develop even more suicidal thoughts and right when you thought it was all over, your hacker comes back on a new account and does the same antics and people keep blaming you for it when you know damn well it isn't you and you have to suffer over it, and then when you tell them this new user is most likely the hacker [who is an adult, may i add] from before and they brush you off and keep saying you're lying, just so you'll know how i feel <3

Just so you know I'll laugh my ass off if that happens to you because you genuinely deserve it since you're doing this shit to me lmao.
